Notable features:

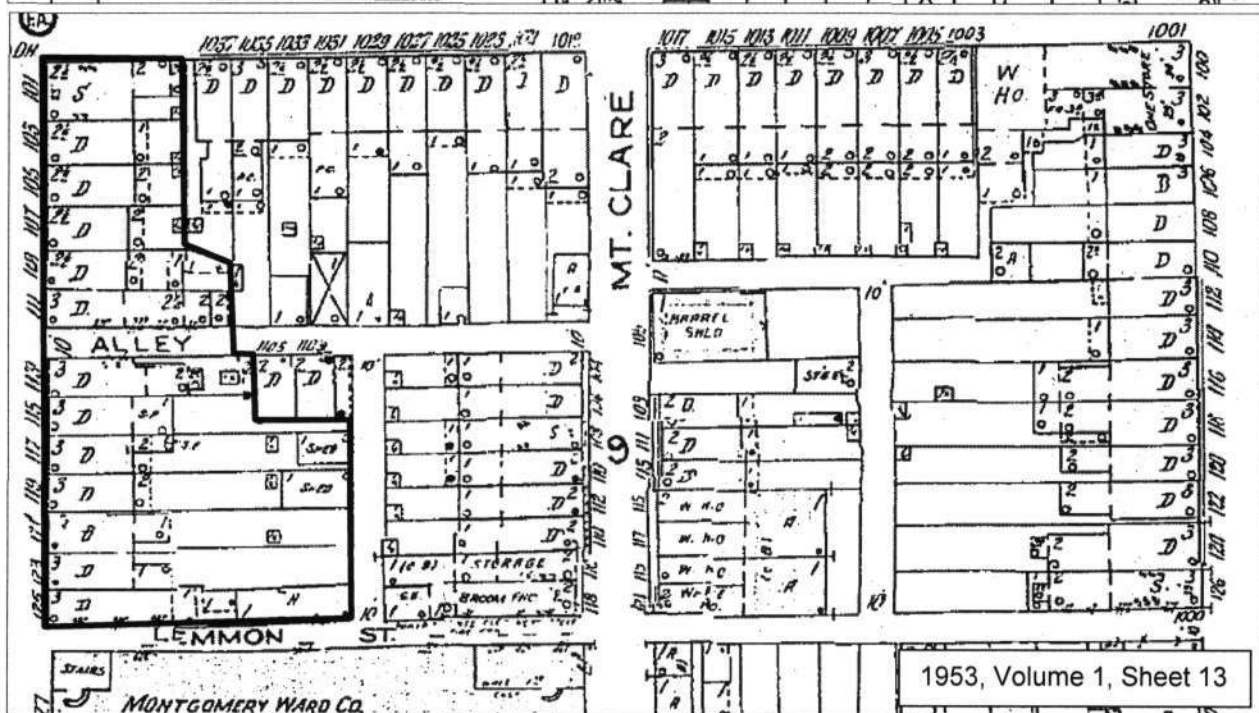

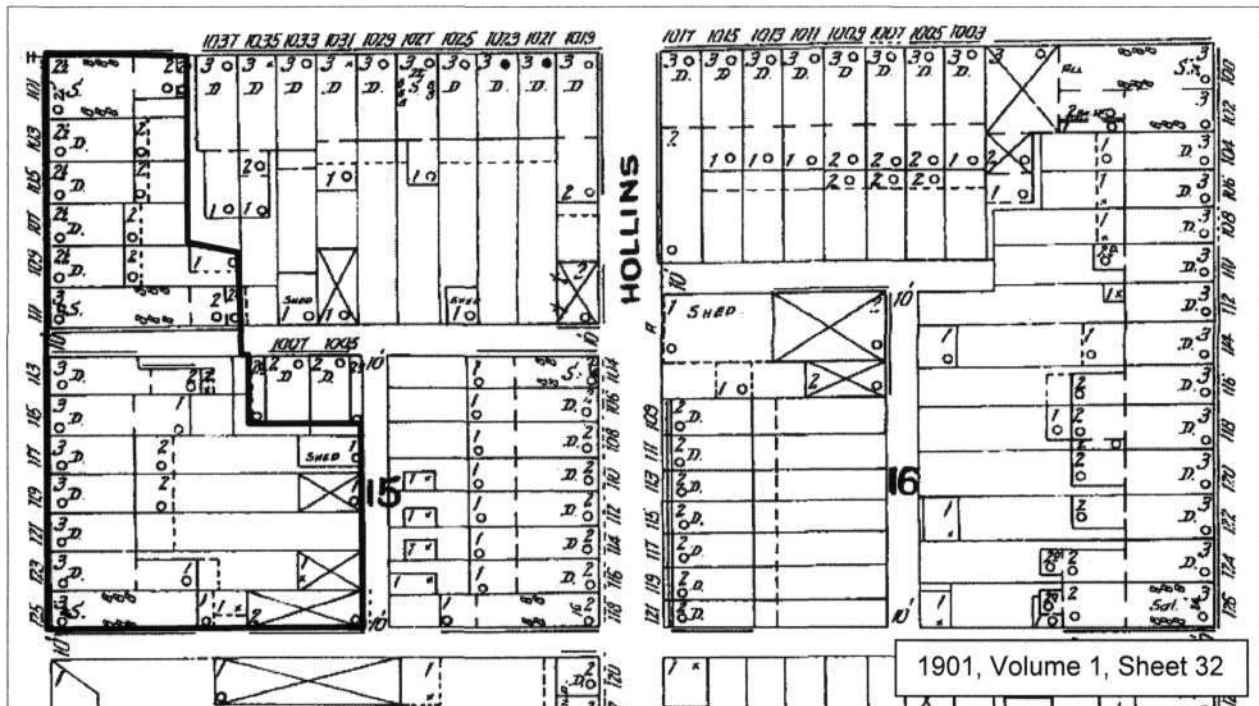

Number 101 has been stuccoed and remodelled; numbers 105-109 have been formstoned. Numbers 101-119 are shallow gable, 2 story and attic houses; the rest are slightly later, i.e., after 1851. This is a well tended, carefully repaired and clean street. Many of these houses have original stone foundation walls and cellars, hand-hewn floor joists showing in the cellars.

Environmental context:

Lot (31) at 125 has been cleared and is paved parking for the envelope company just beyond. The street is now torn up and blocked by the storm sewer project for the expressway; blasting for it has damaged interiors of old houses, especially the stone cellars. Larger street trees are needed and more should be planted.
